A Season of...

The '79 season was a strong one for the Luans. Varsity won the majority of their games due to the complementing of the offensive and defensive teams. Together they formed one of the best teams seen in recent years, according to coach Dave Holmes.

the offense line created gaping holes for U-fit running backs, and ample time for quarterbacks to pass. Receivers had the speed and hands to catch those balls, and the backs, the power and against to run them, explained team coaches. Completions by the quarterbacks were numerous, while interceptions were kept at an extreme low. Combined, they made U-fit one of the dominant forces in the GSL.

Outstanding Effort!

A hard working, solid defense took to the fields last season. Coach Janke said that Discipline was the key. The front four had season were a powerhouse. The amount of sacks doubled from that of the previous season. The defensive line was excellent in reading their ment few mistakes were made. The pass defense was a virtual net, Coach Janke emphasized. Interceptions were up 300% over the year before. Although there were a few rookies, everyone learned a lot and did-An awfully good job," Janke said. The defense last season came together as a whole, and that is every coaches dream. he concluded

Volleyball Shows Improvement

The varsity volleyball team has improved a lot in the last two years, not only in skill but in thinking, moving for coverage on a block and on a spike, 'stated coach Paula Oswald. 'The sophomores showed greater improvement this year then in past years.

Mrs. Turner remarked that the season started out slow due to the strike in district 81. This caused a lot of extra practice time which benefited the team

Virs. Turner along with Mr. Thomas and Miss Fister, (student teachers) were an asset to the JV team Mrs. Oswald also commented that 'the 1st round robin of our double round robin was cut because of the strike, as a result the one round will determine teams to quality for districts. ## C.V. Has New Superintendent.

Dr. Richard C. Langton joined Central Valley school district as the new Super-intendent of Schools last summer. He completes his first term as administrative head of the district with the closing of school next month.

Dr. Langton came to CV after 29 years of various experience in education ranging from being a Junior high school teacher to serving as a college administrator. He was pleased to return to the Spokane area and said, "I m impressed with the (CV) district, but am still getting to know the many people in our schools

As administrative head of the district he is responsible for all policies and programs in individual schools. It was under Dr Langton's direction that the football field renovation was completed. New courses and curriculum changes also are approved through district administrative channels.

Dr. Langton stated that he was not uniquely involved with University High School's program this year, but did have some unnamed projects yet pending

Two Teachers Top Recognition List

Mrs. Lucy Jydstrup earned the 1980 Teacher of the Year award for Central Valley School District and Mr. John Travnor was selected as first runner up. Both teachers said they are grateful and pleased.

Each year the Central Valley Education Association selects one teacher from the district for the "Teacher of the Year award. Teachers are nominated from throughout the district by their fellow teachers. An anonymous committee of 4 district teachers then reviews all nominations, selects six finalists, and ultimately nominates a Teacher of the Year and a runner up. Principle Jim Stickney said, "It's a great priviledge for two U-Hi instructors to be singled out from the hundreds of teachers in our district, when announcing the awards

Mrs. Jydstrup will compete with other district nominees from across the state for Washington State "Teacher of the Year

Advanced Placement Proves Successful!

U-High students can earn college credit while still completing high school require ments through the Advanced Placement Program available the last two years Advanced placement offers qualified students an opportunity to gain college credit for a class taken in high school t'articipating students must be selected for advanced placement courses and must take a national test in May. The student must earn a predetermined score on the test to earn college credit for the class. Ninety percent of the colleges and universities in the nation and most high schools in this area are involved in the Advanced Placement Program.

This year, U-High offered Advanced Placement Calculus, (taught by Mr Manfred) European History, (taught by Mr. Traynor) and U.S. History, (taught by Mr. Richardson). Last year, 17 of 20 seniors earned college credit for their efforts in the program's pilot year.

Advanced Placement Programs, while new, are successful and are enjoyable to teach, 'emphasized U.S. History teacher Mr. Buthardson

Varsity: Playing In a League That's Anybody's Guess!

Playing in the Greater Spokane League is very tough, and any game played could belong to anyone, 'commented Mr. Mary Amsworth, varsity basketball coach

By mid season the team had demonstrated this very well as they shot over North Central, Gonzaga Prep. Rogers, Lewis & Clark. Shadle Park and finally Mead, but discouragingly lost a 'first-up match to Mead. Ferris and Central Valley Printing deadlines held back results of final league games.

Couch Ainsworth said, "The great comradeship between team members, had to be the best point about the team. Team captain. Aaron Alteneder agreed with this saving, "The reason we get along so well has to be because we hang around together." Mr. Ainsworth commended the team replying, "In his eighteen years of coaching these guys were the best bunch"

Mr Amsworth felt, that at mid season. Kelly Sigel, Aaron Alteneder (best rebounder), and Steve Shagina were his strongest players

J.V. "Ames" For Title =

Junior Varsity basketball players had their sights set on number one in the GSL and at mid season had maintained an enviable undefeated position. Printing deadlines didn't allow for standings to be recorded but Coach Bill Ames and the team had high hopes for a successful lead

Couch Ames felt the best point of the team was, "Their willingness to work together the aidded that all thirteen players could play well, and that as a whole, excelled highly in shooting baskets and running

Guided through the season by captain

Kevin Drew, he remarked that "The twelve of us, expected to place high in this year's standings because we've worked together in the past and haven't lost anybody to the varsity team.

Summing up the players, team and season. Coach Ames said there wasn't any one stronger player, and that all the guys played 'great!" He emphasized that he really enjoyed coaching the team this year, and was looking forward to all the guys playing varsity next year.

"B"s Dribble to Hold #1 Spot

Half way into their season the 'B basketball team, coached by Mr. Bill Clift, held an undefeated position. Having to make early deadlines, the rest of the team's scores couldn't be turned in. However, the team and Coach Clift had high hopes of continuing their number one streak.

Coach Clift emphasized that the team plays good defense and "they work very well together. He commended the whole team saving they all excelled in attitude

Out of the twenty team members, Mr Clift felt that Chris Urgehte was the leading scorer, but all the gave were very good, and before they graduate his goal is "For all, to play varsity

Wrestlers Roll

'Em Over

Couch Mr. Jim Lusk expressed dis appointment at the beginning of the 1979-1980 season. We have some outstanding wrestlers in the middle and lower weight classes but we're really hurting for numbers in the upper weights. I'm disappointed that many athletes who have the ability to fill these upper weight classes don't realize the benefits to be gained by wrestling, both in the competition itself and the carry-over skills for other sports

Letter Club Honors Athletes

Letter Club represents a group of students recognized for their achievements in sports. The prerequisite for Letter Club requires that a student letter in a sport

The group, because they re there to honor students, does not sponsor many events. They do, however, annually aponsor a Donkey Basketball game, which at this date has not yet been confirmed. The proceeds from this event go for purchases to benefit the overall athletic program, according to Mr. Darryl Isotalo, advisor.

"Beauty of Christmas" Shown at Christmas Dance

The Christmas Dance this year centered around the theme "The Beauty of Christmas." The dance, put on the the Choral Department, ruised money for the choirs expenses. The dance raised $156 and Mr Cross termed the dance, a nice water formal, and it succeeded in ruising money, but for the amount of work put into the dance I wish we could of had a better turnout

The dance, held on Saturday December 15, began at 9:00 and continued on 'till midnight. The group 'Lion' provided the music. The dance cost $7.50 per couple and Dorian Studios provided pictures for couples, Mr. & Mrs. Cross, Mr. & Mrs. Isotalo, Mr. & Mrs. Parmentier, Mr. & Mrs. Lammand Mr. & Mrs. Rust chaper oned the dance

The German Club also scheduled Christmas caroling at the Shrine Hospital and bringing the Faster Bunin or Easter A German dinner at the Hofbrauhaus ended a great year

High School Bowl Makes Tough Competition Against L.C.

The 79-80 High School Bowl team lost its first match against Lewis and Clark on November 8, 1979. The team consisted of Cuptain Burb Greene, Eddie Wells, Dave Whert, and Marcia Misterek, Jeff Ward, a sophomore alternate, stood by in case anyone on the team couldn't participate. Lewis and Clark got off to a big lead in the first half with a score of 135 30

SweetheartsEnjoy an Old-Fashioned Evening

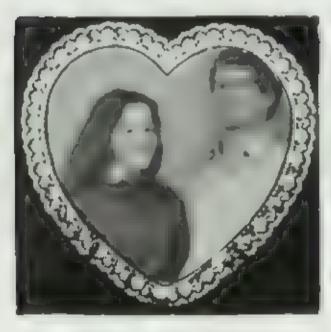

Will you be mine?" That question ran through many girls' minds as they searched for that special guy to take to the 1980 Sweetheart Dance. The dance, with the theme, 'Just an Old fashioned Love Song and held February 9th, took place at University 8 own Central Plaza Ballroom large cafeterial. The young couples swaved to the sounds of Chariot, while

Dorian captured their romantic moods on film

Seniors had the most couples attend the dance, therefore Jami Buys was crowned Queen

This annual dance, sponsored by the Leigue of Kronos, Executive Board, and advisors Mrs. Lucy Jydstrup and Mrs. Kathy Steblaj, proved to be a very memorable evening for all young sweet hearts!

Chase for Championship

Girls Softball Conch Dudley Mizoguchi felt that the girls would do 'excellent this season in the team standings, he predicted a 'chase for the champion ship,' since "we have six returning starters who lettered on last year's first place team

He felt of his returning players Gail Taff. Staci. Tucker (both 3rd year players, Cindy Chewning and Bhanda Nicol (two year players) would do an excellent job.

The team excells in defense, the main emphasis since that is so important in slow pitch

Coach Mizoguchi stressed that the girls planned on coming in first in the league and predicted that the teams to beat this season would be Rogers and Central Valley

Mong with Varsity, Mizoguchi thought that the J.V. girls under the direction of assistant—coach—Kent—(the Bullet Richardson, would probably finish high in the league with a strong program. Coach Bichardson felt also that the J.V. team will be tops again because of the performances of previous teams. Each deadlines prevented the insights of who would be outstanding players.

The Tetan Guardian Angels decorated lockers and homes before each game for boys in varsity football, wrestling, and basketball. These "angels spent then time and effort showing the gays how much they are appreciated.

This group is organized every fall and the girls are assigned boys. Semor Debbi Haskins assumed this responsibility as head cheerleader. Usually the girls are two to one player. The angels go to the givs houses at night and todet paper and put a sign somewhere on his house or fence. In the lockers the girls put candy and goodies for the givs to snack on all day. In one incident two guardian angels put a McDonalds breakfast on their boy s doorstep along with a note that said. We do it all for you

A parent a coffee hour preceded a school pageant held on March 10 at 3:00 p.m. The judges, the girls and their parents were able to get acquainted. During the program, participants answered an impromptuiquestion as well as presenting a 3-minute prepared speech. Judging based 40% on personality, poise and talent, 40° on appearance and attractiveness; and 20% on speaking ability, determined the princess. Later that afternoon, Stace became U-Hi s representative.

Miss Tucker, the honored princess, along with 11 other area high school senior girls vied for the title of Lilac Festival Queen on April 18 in a pageant held at the Spokane Opera House

U-Hi Drama Students "Play" Around All Year

The Drama Department's year began with rehearsals for the Fall play, "Miracle on 34th Street." Everyone worked hard and the play was a big success, according to Mrs. Crowley

During Christmas vacation Mrs. Crowley took a group of students to London. They saw many theatre productions including Helio Dolly' with Carol Channing, and The Last of the Bed Hot Lovers

The Drama Department actually consists of three different classes all working on individual assignments and pooling their efforts on major productions.

Popcorn Players worked on acting techniques such as voice projection and gooduse of the stage

Theatre Workshop classes worked on mime techniques. They spent time performing for the area grade schools.

The Introduction to Drama classes did a little of everything. Minie was introduced along with vocal acting and make-up techniques

Avoids Cracking Up

The 1980 Kronos Staff began the year in various stages of nervous disorder, and it was downhill from then on. Led by their fearless advisor, "Terrible Ted", the staffers quickly got the full-color Senior section into production, along with 16 other color pages

For the first time in several years, the Sophomores added their vitality and new blood to the aged and decrepit stuff members who survived the Great Book of 79. The advertising sales also topped all recent records, as Valley merchants succumbed to the pleas of frantic stuffers C mon, Dad, just one

vearbook production. This knowledge was acquired during Mr. Clark's vearly 'give em helf' yearbook speech. Some returning staffers, however, acquired only extra sleep. The real experience came during the first deadline in a trial and error situation, with trial and error running neck and neck

Despite all of the set-backs, though, the staff worked amouthly and efficiently in the production of the annual Each person took pride in the completion of their individual spreads, and who is to say which is more important...pride in self, or mental health?

This year the Mercury Staff went all out by collecting current information on state wide and national news as well as topics covering school events, according to advisor Bill Gilchrist. The paper's quality has improved in the fields of reporting editorializing, and different skills related to newspaper layout.

This self-supporting organization raised money by putting on the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance and selling advertise ments to local merchants. The Mercury is released to the student body every three weeks, twelve times throughout the year

It is unique in that the entire paper is printed in the school using University's graphics and press set ups. Mr. Gilchrist said, 'the class is drawing more students now who are interested in doing a serious job in the different phases of newspaper production. Generally, kids want to do a good job of writing since what they write is read by their peers. As students investigate news areas they are especially interested in, their writing improves and the paper is better. That has happened this year, 'he concluded

igh Choir Chosen Among Top 15 in State!!

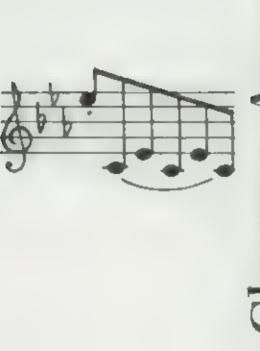

Concert Choir this year has grown to include 94 students. Not only has the group grown but also their reputation, emphasized director Dave Cross. Possibly one of the most prestigious honors this group has received was an initiation to perform at the Washington State Michael Convention. This invitation between the top 15 choirs in the state and University was very proud to accept their invitation, Mr. Cross concluded.

In addition, the Concert Choir received a second invitation to the choir festival at Shoreline Community College, Last year U-High took fourth in the large group competition

Other performances, competitions and activities include the Eastern Washington Viusic Educators Association, five annual concerts presented at the school and the 2nd annual semi-formal Christmas Dance

This year Concert Choir was also asked to tape a commercial for television. The choir members accepted and are considering themselves "television stars"

University Scholars Prove Successful

University's students worked hard this year, earning a variety of scholarships and academic awards. As of a March 12 printing deadline 27 members of the Class of 80 had been notified of scholarships and awards. Bichard Naccarato, Senior counselor, emphasized that this number will grow considerably by the end of the school term.

Five students from U-Hi were chosen as commendation winners for the PSAT National Merit Scholarship. One student, Barb Greene, was chosen as a finalist for the scholarship.

Four students were chosen for mining and metallurgical scholarships from the University of Idaho. Other scholarships, such as the Valley Elks Vocational Scholarship, went to students at University High School

Goodbye '80

Too Late To Classify

This page is devoted to those Seniors who, through the error of the staff or their own oversight, are not pictured with the other Seniors. The staff wishes to include as many as possible, and therefore offers this section of photos which were received after the final color deadline.

THE YEAR OF THE SERVICE OF THE SERVI

eagle is a say of themes at be an de a satisfic

A traditional "acknowledgements" page contains a list of thank-you's that rivals the Oscur Award for best technical effects for a foreign short documentary in boredom

However, were it not for this list of thank you's, the vearbook would not exist, for the thanks are given to the staff for a job well done.

The 1980 staff deserves these thanks, if possible, more than any other group previously to occupy room 505. They took on the monumental task of bringing the Kronos "out of the dark ages in terms of graphic layout, design, and special effects. The staff accomplished this task admirably, and even left a bit of Mr. Clarks sanity intact—hopefully enough to get him through the years until he can retire to a nice peaceful asylum.

Indeed, the Kronos would only be another word which no one knows the meaning of were it not for the guidance and temper tantrums of TED CLARK. He did much of the difficult graphics himself, and often gave his own time to finish a deadline MARKEL KLOBUCHER, Assistant Editor. also sacrificed her own time and energy for the yearbook, her only compensation being the satisfaction of seeing the finished book, and also getting to find out at an early age just what sendity is like KATHY TAYLOR, Copy Editor, St E OSTER-BACK, Layout Editor, and SUSAN BROWN. Business Manager, who comprised the rest of the editorial board, gave their ideas and active minds to what must at times, have seemed to be a sinking ship. They should be thanked especially for creating the main theme and format of the book, and for not strangling the editor

perience, and a color Senior deadline staring them in the face. Latest reports indicate that they are beginning to speak, and may be ready to rejoin society by the year 2000. TERESA BECKER took charge of all Titan Teams as Sports Editor and is up for the Titan Purple Heart for doing a great job despite injuries received on the field of battle. AUDREE QUICK and NOREEN ZINECKER took over the most precise and demanding jobs on the staff-dealing with grumpy photographers-as Photo Editors, and every picture in the yearbook passed through their hands. (Don't blame Mr. Clark for the thumbprints on the faces, Audree and Noreen ate lunch during 4th period /

ROGER CARSTENS helped out in many sections of the book, including advertising and football, while aso hosting the Roger Carstens Comedy Hour. STACEY KNOX and WENDY HEARTBURG, as part of the first group of Sophomores to grace the staff in years, each completed a number of individual spreads, though a terrible tragedy (schedule change) snatched Wendy from our midst at semester

BARB GILBERT completed the Sadie Hawkins page, along with other spreads including the Mercury page. The pages conveniently went hand in hand as Barb infiltrated the enemy camp to do her story, and also happened to find a few Sadie Hawkins pictures lying around that no one seemed to want. ERIKA ANDER SON and DENISE BRUMMETT both put in long hours on the activities section, feantically trying to make up Titan activities as one thing after another was canceled due to lack of student interest lack of funds, or lack of having any pictures due to editorial goof ups DAWNA WASSER and ELIZABETTE also accepted the responsibility of the pages that were assigned to them, and by the end of the year they were wondering just how many more sporting events there could possibly be in one measly school

SUE WIMMETT performed the very vital job of Graphics. By the end of the year, Sue a arm looked like a weight lifter a due to carrying the light tables back and forth on weekends. ROB BEHM, BOB HUGHES, and BLAKE McNNLEY functioned as the staff photographers who were responsible for being at almost all school activities with cameras in hand. Toward the end of the year, however, they began to find more suitable uses for their camera's: Rob's mysteriously camera disappeared though patrons of Behm's Valley Cream ery noticed strange metal objects in their ice cream, Bob, unable to find parts for his vintage Mustaing, utilized his range finder as a trick hood ornament, and Blake's uses for the small metal parts of his camera are unprintable by State Law

Finally, thanks go to all the people at Herff Jones in Pasco, and especially to Dale Quincy, our Herff Jones representative Mike Kinne, of Mike Kinne Typesetting also bailed us out more than once

Seriously, working on the Kronos has been a great honor, and has given each and every one of us something we will treasure always: something "good to write on college applications"
